

CANDELLUX
STUDIO

new premium lighting brand

Candellux Studio — light that accompanies your life.

Candellux Studio is a new premium lighting sub-brand, created for discerning users as well as architects and designers. It combines 35 years of experience from Candellux Lighting, a Polish lighting manufacturer, with modern design and an understanding of the rhythm of daily life at home.

Since 1990, Candellux Lighting has been designing lamps that do more than just illuminate spaces — they create atmosphere, comfort, and harmony, adapting to the emotions, needs, and moments of the people living in them. The brand combines quality, durability, and innovation with elegance and attention to detail, and is present in thousands of homes in Poland and around the world.

At Candellux Studio, light becomes an active part of everyday life — subtle forms, carefully selected materials, and precise craftsmanship allow your interior to change with the rhythm of your life, supporting mood and comfort every day.

Candellux Studio — light that does more than brighten a space; it shapes it together with you, day by day.

We invite you to explore our catalog and discover the full Candellux Studio collection.

A minimalist interior scene featuring a wooden dining table, a vase of dried flowers, and three organic-shaped pendant lights. The scene is set in a room with light-colored walls and a wooden floor. A large window on the left allows natural light to stream in, creating a warm and serene atmosphere. The pendant lights have a smooth, rounded, stone-like appearance. The table is made of light-colored wood and is accompanied by several wooden chairs. A vase of dried flowers sits on the table, adding a touch of nature to the space. On the wall behind the table, there are three small, rounded ceramic vessels.

STONES

The STONES series by Candellux Studio draws inspiration from nature. Its organic forms bring the beauty and serenity of natural landscapes into the home.
